Dream Interpretation: A Biblical Understanding By Herman Riffel

The author points out the frequent use of dreams in the Bible as one of the important ways that God communicates with man. He also explains universal principles of dream interpretation in the language of symbolism such as birth and death, animals and people and the parable and the dream. The persona or mask, the hidden shadow and the masculine and the feminine in dreams, of which the Bible speaks, lead to personal wholeness.

Your seminar about dreams and their interpretation has given me, as a family doctor a therapeutic tool with which to understand human behavior in my patients and my self A must for any self-respecting medical student. T. George Lewis, M.D., Ontario, Canada

About the Author

For more than 50 years, Herman Riffel has adventured on the cutting edge of what God is doing in this age. After graduating from Wheaton College in Wheaton, IL, he was a pastor for 25 years. Then for another 35 years his ministry took him to nearly 50 countries around the world. Sifting through knowledge from psychology, medicine, and early Church mysticism, Herman recovers redemptive principles and puts them in proper union with spiritual truth.
