". . . I am amazed at the depth and power of this story. Debbie Herbert is well on her way to becoming an established author. Her series takes place in the Alabama bayou and is the story of a family of mermaids who have fought for generations to keep their identity secret." Paranormal Romance Writers

"With all the paranormal genre books out, Debbie Herbert takes one that is not as popular as vampires and werewolves are and makes it her own. As a debut novel, this is a great start to a series. Can't wait to see what else Debbie Herbert comes out with!" Fresh Fiction

Siren's Secret won the Reader's Choice award by cataromance for 2013.

From the Author

Enter a place where a secret clan of mermaids lives deep in an Alabama bayou. Picture giant live oaks shrouded with Spanish moss, and swampy backwoods teeming with mystery, suspense and fantasy. A place where magic abounds and where love, like magic, casts its own spell of enchantment.

I've always been entranced by the ocean. When lying on the beach, eyes closed, listening to the eternal rise and fall of the waves, I spin stories about mermaids -- mysterious creatures of great beauty and power who play with dolphins, sing with the whales and live in an undersea world filled with treasure.

Wishing you all the best and lots of fun in the sun at the beach . . . whether you are there in person or in your imagination.

From the Inside Flap

Surely there was no harm in a little kiss . . .

"It's okay," she whispered, fascinated with the darkening of his gray eyes. Tillman wanted her every bit as much as she wanted him. Dangerous territory, her mind whispered. Remember what happened to your mother when she fell in love with a human. Shelly squeezed her eyes shut, determined to drown the demon voices of doom. She had wanted to get close to him for so long, had fantasized about this moment for over a year.

His lips were upon hers, hot, demanding and probing. She was drowning in sensation, her bones and blood liquefying in pools of desire. The sweet, fierce hotness made Shelly's toes curl into the warm sand. The pounding of the waves matched the pounding in her blood."
