A Woman's Body Is A Temple By Dephne Victorious Madyara

A woman is an intricately beautiful specimen. How she's built is far more excellent than the human eyes and mind can comprehend. A woman is not ordinary, she not a piece of meat, she is not a slave nor is she a sex object. Her body is sacred, it is not a pleasure machine. From the side of a man she was taken and built up into a female, woman and wife by God. When God designed, formed and made her, He took the role of a Father and walked with her to present her whole and complete to her Adam. It is written that she is worth more than the most rare jewels on the earth. However, how many girls and women really understand all this in these days we are living in? Thus, 'A Woman's Body Is A Temple' is for the woman who gives out her phone number based on the car a guy drives. It is for the female who never had a father. It is for the woman who wants to know what it is like to be looked at and treated like she is above the priciest diamond. It is for the praying sister who hasn't known the measures, steps and pivotal points taken in personal friendships and relationships with the opposite sex. It is for the unmarried female who gives away parts of her body as a 'thank you' for being treated like a queen. It's for the fasting sister waiting on God for a good man. It is for the good girl who doesn't compromise her emotions and body for a man. Truly, whoever reads this book cannot remain the same again.
