How We Escaped our Certain Fate (A Short Story) By Dan Chaon

As an infection rages, leaving a swath of horror in its wake, Peter and his father do their best to maintain normal lives. Peter, just a child when the infection took hold of the nation, has taken up a militaristic and punitive view of how to deal with the walking dead. His father, however, can't help but feel compassion for the creatures.

When they discover their fence has been breached, Peter's father suspects the intruder is much more than a rabid zombie—and risks everything with his heart.
