The assignment:

Over a period of approximately ten weeks, the Holy Spirit of God took me on several supernatural journeys with the following clear assignment: “You must write down everything, and publish it in book form. The content of the book must be simple so that everyone can understand it.”

“Write the vision and engrave it so plainly upon tablets that everyone who passes may (be able to) read (it easily and quickly) as he hastens by.” Habakkuk 2:2 (Amplified Bible).

Together with the prophet Isaiah in Isaiah 49:5, I want to answer: “The Lord gave me an important assignment, and God will empower me to complete it.” On the isle of Patmos, the apostle John received a similar commission. He writes in Revelations 1:10: “On the Lord’s Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, which said: “Write down what you see and send it to the seven churches.”

I realise that there may be people who will read this book with misgivings, or doubt, and may even regard it as purely a flight of the imagination. My purpose is not to convince any one person of my spiritual journeys. What must be revealed, the Spirit of the Lord will reveal, and also to those who are ready to understand it. (Jeremiah 33:3). In 1 Corinthians 2:9 Father God confirms: “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him” (NIV). I want to agree with 1 Corinthians 2:13 – 15: “This is what we speak, not in words, taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual man makes judgment about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man’s judgment”.

The Father God has no favourites. He is no discerner of persons. He longs to have an intimate relationship with every one of his children. Because God is a supernatural Being, it is understandable that He will communicate with us through his Spirit, as John 4:24 explains: “God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth.”

“Satan is a person. He is a reality,” I clearly heard God say during one of my journeys. “Do not for one moment underestimate his craftiness and lies.” Satan will try in any which way to deter the children of the living God from walking the road of salvation. But his time is running out. He will try with even greater cunning to drag the children of the Light over the abyss and into the depths of his eternal darkness. It is only by the blood of the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha Maschiach, and through the working of the Holy Spirit, that we will be covered and remain strong enough to resist the relentless attacks of the enemy.

Therefore we must be willing and receptive to be guided by the Holy Spirit in all truth, so that we can experience eternal glory and joy with our heavenly Father in the next life.

In John 16:13-15 Jesus explains: “But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and make it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said that the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you” .

Father God longs for an intimate relationship with each one of us; He wants us to listen to, and hear his voice. In Numbers 12: 5-8, God says the following about his servant Moses: “Then the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When both of them stepped forward, he said, “Listen to my words: “When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.
